Where appropriate such publication may strongly recommend that relevant bodies support ASC penalties by extending any ASC suspension to include the shows held during that time by those relevant bodies. No action shall lie against the ASC, the Board, or any member of a Committee in respect of any such publication.
35. The Committee may determine by resolution that, when notified by another body of the suspension of an animal and/or a person (or persons) under the rules applicable to that body's showing rules, the suspension will be extended to include NSW agricultural shows, and the societies will be notified accordingly.
